OSBORNE'S BUILDING PROGRAM MAY DECLARE BIG DIVIDENDS FOR POTENT CORNHUSKERS

By DON BRYANT

Tom Osborne heads into his fourth season as Nebraska's head football coach with a full head of steam and a car-load of confidence.

Of course, it has become commonplace to expect a successful season at Nebraska, so Osborne isn't acting out of character when he views 1976 with a sizeable amount of optimism.

Rather, the studious Osborne approaches the upcoming campaign with the analytical insight and research-oriented assessments of a Doctor of Philosophy—which Osborne is, by the way.

With a highly-successful three-year apprenticeship out of the way—Osborne, like his predecessor Bob Devaney, won 28 games and a couple of bowl games during the same span—Osborne is firmly established as one of the nation's outstanding coaches.

"We expect to have a very fine football team in 1976," Osborne says with a firmly-set jaw. "We base this optimism on the fact we have better players and more of them than we've had for two or three years."

As if sensing imminent chastisement from the Brotherhood of Coaches for speaking so candidly, the Cornhusker headmaster lets a scowl move across his face, then says with a tinge of apprehension:

"We certainly hope our improvement is noticeable, but the fact of the matter is it may not be, because most of our opponents no doubt will be better, too."

Osborne does have some solid basis for optimism because the 1976 Cornhuskers on paper do look like a contender for Big 8 and national honors once again.

Last year was labeled a "building year" by most observers and the Huskers won 10 straight and tied for the Big 8 title before losing to Oklahoma and dropping a Fiesta Bowl squeaker to Arizona State. Translated: Nebraska beat all comers except the No. 1 and 2 teams in the nation, and the Huskers led both in the late stages. Not bad for a young team that was pointing for "next year."

This will be a Nebraska team with an improved offensive potential and with the traditional aggressive Black Shirt defensive unit. Osborne can call on 37 lettermen, including eight offensive and five defensive starters, NOT COUNTING two-year starter Ron Pruitt, who returns after sitting out 1975 with a broken leg.

The offensive line should be a dandy, with all hands but All America center Rik Bonness on deck. No team will have a finer brace of tackles than All America candidates Bob Lingenfelter and Steve Hoins, and few teams will have better guards than Dan Schmidt and Greg Jorgensen. Toss in veteran back-ups like Steve Lindquist, Stan Waldemore and Bob Hayes

Split end is deep in talent and experience, with 1975 starter Bobby Thomas on hand, along with back-up Chuck Malito and Dave Shamblin, who returns after fully recovering from knee trouble suffered two years ago. All are two-year lettermen who can fly and catch the ball. Tight end lacks the experience that dominates the rest of the front line, but letterman Ken Spaeth and JC transfer Mark Dufresne will make the spot solid.

Backfield ranks are filled with veterans who have made impressive contributions to the cause the past two years, during which time the Osborne Huskers have logged a 19-5-0 record. Quarterback Vince Ferragamo will skipper the attack again and Monte Anthony returns at I-Back with great Frosh and Soph campaigns under his belt. Wingback Curtis Craig is also back along with letterman Kenny Brown and a healthy Darrell Walton.

Fullback Tony Davis is gone and with him Nebraska's all-time rushing record, but back-ups Dodie Donnell and Gary Higgs are on hand.

Two-year punting star Randy Lessman returns and two-year letterman Al Eveland heads the kicking contingent that shows promising depth.

Weighing the evidence, says Osborne, brings a verdict of an improved offense.

Defensively, there are some holes to fill—like middle guard where John Lee held forth, monster where All America Wonder Monds played for three years, defensive end where All America Bob Martin anchored for three years and safety manned by Jimmy Burrow—but the Cornhuskers once again expect to field a potent Black Shirt aggregation.

"We lost several fine players, but we've got some people who really want to play coming back," says Defensive Coordinator Monte Kiffin. "We get a plus with the return of Ron Pruitt, too, so we'll be ready to play some defense."

The Black Shirt line will feature probably the best tackle tandem in college football—Mike Fultz and Ron Pruitt, both of whom could be most anyone's All Americans. Letterman Jeff Pullen heads into fall camp as the middle guard heir apparent, but he may get a battle from soph strongman Rod Horn. Ace end Ray Phillips returns as one end and could bid for high honors, while letterman Tony Samuel and sophomore George Andrews are top candidates at the other flank.

Linebacking features honors candidate Clete Pillen and Jim Wightman, the two fine starters in 1975. Letterman Kent Smith and soph Jim Pillen will handle the monster duties, while All Big 8 Dave Butterfield returns at left cornerback. Ted Harvey, also a letterman, is the top man at the other corner and Larry Valasek, a junior letterman, will open at safety. Defensive backfield depth will also be bolstered by transfer Rene Anderson.

That's a highspot look at the 1976 Nebraska Cornhuskers as Tom Osborne vigorously assails his fourth campaign. During his first three seasons, Dr. Tom's Huskers have been impressive—28 wins, only seven losses and one tie. Toss in three straight bowl trips, three straight Top 10 finishes and a Big 8 co-championship and a clear picture of a successful, dedicated and determined football coach emerges.

The Big Redhead and his players aren't planning on any slowdown in 1976.

IN THE GOOD OL' SUMMERTIME— THE HUSKERS LOOK LIKE THIS:

1976 OFFENSE—What a difference a year makes! Last year the Huskers opened the season with an offensive line that featured five strangers and a quarterback who had never started a game. Not so in 1976—Quarterback Vince Ferragamo will be directing traffic behind a veteran line, tossing passes to a flock of veteran receivers and handing off to some experienced, big, fast, proven backs . . . Nebraska once again will not get cute with the ball and turn over activities to some fancy-dan type runners, but the Huskers will have a potent attack. The emphasis in the running department will still be on big, strong backs who can block as well as run. But running backs like Monte Anthony and Dave Gillespie (both lettermen) and Richard Berns (Sophomore) will provide added speed over recent years . . . Look for the Huskers to throw more, too, which seems appropriate with a fine passer like Ferragamo and back-ups like Tom Sorley, Randy Garcia and Ed Burns. Even moreso when you consider receivers like Dave Shamblin, Bobby Thomas, Chuck Malito (all lettermen with starting experience), and wingback Curtis Craig . . . Tony Davis will leave a big hole at fullback, but Dodie Donnell and Gary Higgs are veterans who have proven they can play . . . Key to any offense is the line, and there the Huskers appear well-fortified. Four starters and three backups are on hand and center Tom Davis started three games when All America Rik Bonness was ailing, so it will be a far different line that opens the 1976 season . . . All things considered, Coach Tom Osborne expects the 1976 offense to be much improved and more productive than his three previous editions.

1976 DEFENSE—Some outstanding players have departed from the Black Shirt ranks—All America end Bob Martin, middle guard John Lee, safety Jimmy Burrow and All America Wonder Monds at monster—but a wholesale dropoff of defensive strength would be a surprise . . . Rather, there is a suspicion that the 1976 Black Shirts will measure up to the usual high standards of the Nebraska defense . . . Front-line personnel is outstanding in spots, with tackles Mike Fultz and Ron Pruitt among the nation's best, and end Ray Phillips, linebackers Clete Pillen and Jim Wightman and All Big 8 Cornerback Dave Butterfield proven big league players . . . Fact is the Huskers—when the middle guard picture clears—will probably field an impressive Black Shirt unit . . . Trouble is there seems to be a lack of proven depth, which means injuries could create some king-size headaches.

1976 AREAS OF CONCERN—Offensively, the Huskers need to replace Larry Mushinskie at tight end, Rik Bonness at center and Tony Davis at fullback . . . Lettermen are on hand at all spots, but center and fullback have the lion's share of the experience . . . That leaves tight end as the most questionable, but back-up Ken Spaeth has improved immensely during the past year and JC transfer Mark Dufrense came on in the spring to challenge. If both continue their improvement pace, the question marks will vanish . . . Defensively, overall depth remains a problem and middle guard has only one candidate who has logged player time—Jeff Pullen, who is a quick battler and may fight off all challenges . . . Experienced defensive depth will remain an area of concern until some of the younger players develop . . . On the bright side, there are a number of fine athletes joining the Black Shirt brigade.

OFFENSE

Split End . . . One of the strongest spots on the 1976 squad. Starter BOBBY THOMAS is back after a fine junior season, and DAVE SHAMBLIN has recovered from a knee problem and had a good 1975 and a fine spring. CHUCK MALITO, the veteran who doubles in track, is also on hand for his senior season, as is veteran squadman RON NITZEL . . . Top newcomer will be TIM SMITH, but he's in fast company despite an impressive Fresh year.

Tackle . . . Coach Cletus Fischer can't keep a straight face when he says he could be "all right." BOB LINGENFELTER and STEVE HOINS return after fine junior seasons, and BOB HAYES lettered as a backup. All three are big, strong, tough and agile. Sophs STEVE GLENN, KELVIN CLARK, PAUL WALDERZAK, TOM OHRT, and JON KRONEBERGER are all fine depth prospects.

Guard . . . Another reason why the Husker offensive line could be outstanding. Starters DAN SCHMIDT and GREG JORGENSEN return, along with backups STAN WALDEMORE and STEVE LINDQUIST . . . Help will also come from sophs LAWRENCE COOLEY, JOHN HAVE-KOST and DAN STEINER.

Center . . . All America Rik Bonness has departed, but backup TOM DAVIS logged some starting time and a lot of playing time as a soph last year . . . Soph BARNEY COTTON had a fine spring and looks like solid alternate material, while soph KEITH BISHOP is in the thick of the scrap, too.

Tight End . . . Least experienced area of the 1976 offense. Larry Mushinskie carried the load and graduated and his backup, Brad Jenkins, did likewise . . . KEN SPAETH, who lettered as a soph in 1975, has developed into a fine blocker and his receiving improved a great deal during spring practice . . . JC transfer MARK DUFRESNE is still learning the NU battle plan, but he came fast during the spring and the position could be in solid shape by mid-season. JOHN SELKO and BRIAN HORN, both sophomores, have excellent potential.

Quarterback . . . VINCE FERRAGAMO returns after leading Nebraska to the Big 8 co-title in 1975 . . . A veteran performer—two years at Cal before transferring to NU—Vince in a fine passer . . . Backup duties will fall to TOM SORLEY, RANDY GARCIA, ED BURNS, TIM HAGER and MIKE KENNEDY . . . Clouding the picture is the fact that Sorley suffered a fractured arm in spring practice after moving into a challenging position . . . If his injury slows him down, best bets for heavy duty will be Garcia and Burns.

I-Back . . . Two-year star MONTE ANTHONY returns and no doubt will carry a heavy load—IF his fractured wrist has mended in good shape. He suffered the injury in the Spring Game . . . DAVE GILLESPIE, big and fast letterman, had a fine spring and appears ready to have a good year . . . Squadman DALE ZABROCKI lacks size, but his toughness and quickness merits attention . . . Fresh RICHARD BERNIS could also jump into heavy action if the injury jinx hits.

Wingback . . . CURTIS CRAIG returns to lead a delegation of outstanding athletes, but he's the only one with experience . . . DARRELL WALTON, back after a red-shirt injury year, EARL EVERETT, a former reserve quarterback, and KENNY BROWN, who lettered as a Fresh last year, all can move and catch the ball.

Fullback . . . Tony Davis started three years for Nebraska, one as an I-Back and two as a fullback, and became the Huskers' all-time ground-gainer . . . But Tough Tony is gone and the heir apparent to the fullback job is LAFAYETTE (DODIE) DONNELL, who lettered as Tony's backup in 1975 . . . He's got power, speed and quickness and if he can generate Davis' leadership waves, Tony's departure may not be so noticeable . . . Backup duties will fall to two-year letterman GARY HIGGS and sophs KEITH STEWARD and MIKE WASHINGTON.

Kicking . . . Veteran Punter RANDY LESSMAN returns for his senior campaign and should be a 40-yard plus booter . . . He's got the knack of kicking 'em high and if he can maintain consistency he could be one of the best . . . Letterman AL EVELAND returns to handle kickoffs and can also kick field goals . . . Newcomers RUSS VANOUS (punter), RON VANDERMEER (transfer placekicker) and DEAN SUKUP (Fresh field goal star) will supply depth and may see heavy duty.

DEFENSE

Ends . . . RAY PHILLIPS, a returning starter and a Big 8 standout, heads the crew . . . TONY SAMUEL, who backed up Phillips last year, moves to the other side to give the Huskers two experienced players . . . REG GAST and RANDY RICK have logged squad and JC time, respectively, but sophomores supply the bulk of the reserve force—GEORGE ANDREWS, TOM RIDDER, LAWRENCE COLE and MARK STROH . . . Good first-time strength, but depth must develop.

Tackles . . . RON PRUITT and MIKE FULTZ give the Huskers an outstanding brace of tackles. Fultz is a two-year starter, 1975 All Big 8 selection and a top All America candidate. Pruitt was a two-year starter, then broke his leg in 1975 and sat out the season. He's back rarin' to go, so the picture is bright . . . DAN BROCK is another letterman who will help and SCOTT AVERY is a JC transfer . . . Soph help will come from some fine candidates like RANDY POESCHEL, BILL BRYANT, MIKE BRANNON and BILL BARNETT.

Middle Guard . . . Most unsettled spot on the front line, but letterman JEFF PULLEN leads the field and lacks only size to be a standout. He has speed, quickness and toughness to be a good middle guard in the John Bell-Ed Periard mold . . . Veteran squadman JOHN PLUCKNETT will help, too, and heavy pressure may come from soph standouts ROD HORN and OUDIOUS LEE.

Linebackers . . . Outstanding starters and good depth mark this as a plus position in 1976 . . . CLETE PILLEN rates as an honors candidate after a great junior season in 1975. JIM WIGHTMAN also played well and backups PERCY EICHELBERGER and JEFF CARPENTER have experience . . . JIM BELKA is a question-mark because of a nagging injury, but he's a good one . . . STEVE MARKUS also has logged squad time . . . TOM VERING and BEN EWING are the top sophs.

Monster . . . All America Wonder Monds is gone after three years of heavy duty, so it's a wide open spot . . . Letterman KENT SMITH had a fine spring and seems to have the inside track . . . Reserve support will come from sophs JIM PILLEN and LARRY YOUNG.

Cornerback . . . All Big 8 veteran DAVE BUTTERFIELD heads the list and will hold down the left side, while letterman junior TED HARVEY is set to take over the right side . . . RENE ANDERSON is a JC transfer that could move into heavy action, while squad vets TIM FISCHER, JAKE CABELL and ROD STOVALL are also available . . . Soph depth will come from JIMM WILLIQUETTE and PAT LEHIGH.

Safety . . . Letterman LARRY VALASEK is the top candidate to fill the spot vacated by Jimmy Burrow . . . JEFF HANSEN, who lettered at linebacker in 1975, has moved to safety and can be a big help . . . Excellent depth is also supplied by sophs DENNIS PAYNE and JOHN INGRAM.

PHOTO DAY

Nebraska's annual Photo Day will be held Wednesday, August 18, starting at 1 p.m. on Memorial Stadium's AstroTurf.

The time schedule:

1:00 p.m.—Squad pictures and mug shots

1:45 p.m.—Individual pictures and interviews

The Cornhuskers will commence two-a-day practices on Aug. 19.

OSBORNE ON THE CORNHUSKERS . . . "We feel we have more and better players than we've had for two or three years, so we are optimistic about prospects for 1976 . . . We're concerned, too, because our improvement may go unnoticed in view of the fact most of the teams we'll play have improved, too . . . We believe that our offense will be stronger and I wouldn't be surprised if we threw more . . . We feel we'll have a good defense again, but we need to develop some added depth . . . We're looking forward to the season because we had great effort during spring practice and this team has indicated it wants to be a real winner . . . With these things in mind, we feel we can compete strongly for Big 8 and national honors."

OSBORNE ON HUSKER STARS . . . "We lost some great players in Rik Bonness, Tony Davis, Bob Martin, Wonder Monds and the other seven seniors who were drafted by NFL teams . . . But we've got a number of standouts who can make headlines in 1976 . . . Mike Fultz and Ron Prutt may be the best pair of defensive tackles around, and the same could be said for offensive tackles Bob Lingenfelter and Steve Hoins . . . Ray Phillips is a fine defensive end and Dave Butterfield is as good a defensive back as there is in the country . . . Vince Ferragamo is a great quarterback and Monte Anthony is a proven star . . . Clete Pillen is also one of the finest linebackers we've had at Nebraska . . . Actually, we have a lot of fine football players, but these are some of the more prominent."

OSBORNE ON THE BIG 8 RACE . . . "We were very happy to tie for the title last year and unhappy we didn't win it outright . . . We are planning on defending our title, of course, and we feel we have the potential to compete well for the conference championship . . . However, the Big 8 race is far from cut and dried again this year since there are a number of teams who look like they can compete for the title . . . Oklahoma lost some great players, but the Sooners will have an outstanding team again . . . Oklahoma State returns more starters than any other team . . . Kansas came on strong last year and returns many fine players . . . Colorado could have a great team and you can't count out Missouri . . . We could have the best team we've had for several years and still have the toughest time winning in the Big 8—it looks like that kind of a race."

Tom Osborne
Head Coach

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach

University of Nebraska

Tom Osborne heads into his fourth season as the head coach of the Nebraska Cornhuskers firmly established as one of the outstanding football coaches in the United States.

In the three seasons, Osborne—who succeeded Bob Devaney in 1973—has skippered the Huskers to a sparkling 28-7-1 record, three Top 10 finishes, two major bowl victories and a winning percentage of .824.

Osborne's 1973 team posted a 9-2-1 record, wound up No. 7 in the nation, and defeated Texas, 19-3, in the Cotton Bowl. In 1974, Osborne's Huskers again finished second in the Big 8 behind national champion Oklahoma, recorded a 9-3-0 record, ranked No. 8 in the nation, and staged a sensational comeback to defeat Florida, 13-10, in the Sugar Bowl. The 1975 Cornhuskers finished the regular season with a 10-1 record before losing, 17-14, to No. 2 ranked Arizona State in the Fiesta Bowl, and winding up No. 9.

Nebraska's Sugar Bowl win was the Huskers' sixth consecutive post-season victory in as many years, tying the national record also shared by Georgia Tech.

Osborne, who graduated from Hastings College before logging pro time with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers, joined Devaney as an assistant in 1962. In 1965 he received his Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, then elected football coaching as a career. He coached the Husker receivers and helped build the NU offense into one of the most potent in the nation during the 1970 and 1971 National Championship years.

While Osborne was a newcomer to the head coaching ranks in 1973, he was no stranger to Nebraska football. Osborne was a member of Bob Devaney's incomparable staff for 11 years—the last six as a key organizer of a steam-roller offense.

During his tenure on the Devaney staff, Osborne headed the passing game strategy and coached the receivers. When Devaney announced his retirement from coaching in favor of full-time athletic director duties following the 1971 season, he announced Osborne would be his successor and assistant head coach for his final season of 1972. Osborne served in that capacity and as director of recruiting in 1972, then took the reins in 1973 and became only the third Husker coach in history (W. C. Cole in 1907 and Bob Devaney in 1962) to win eight games in his first season. And he was the first coach in Nebraska history to take his team to a major bowl (Cotton) in his first year.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid 1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska prep Athlete of the Year. Passing up major college offers, Osborne became the star quarterback and basketball player for Hastings College where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. In 1959 he was named State College Athlete of the Year—the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honor.

Following graduation from Hastings with a Bachelor of Arts Degree, Osborne played two years with the Washington Redskins and one year with the San Francisco 49ers as a flankerback before returning to Nebraska.

In 1962 he contacted Bob Devaney and secured a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he obtained his Master's Degree in 1963. Continuing his dual role in education and football coaching, Osborne gained his Doctor's Degree in 1965 and, holding the Academic rank of Instructor of Educational Psychology in Teacher's College, was a half-time coach.

Osborne elected to pursue coaching full-time in 1967 and became the Huskers' offensive receivers coach, a decision that NU fans have applauded since.

Married to the former Nancy Tederman, Osborne is the father of a young son, Mike and daughters, Ann and Susie.

BILL HOLMES IN MEMORIAM

Nebraska coaches and players were stunned and saddened on July 18 when Sophomore monster back Bill Holmes of Lincoln died in his sleep. The former Lincoln East star had been an All-State athlete. An outstanding athlete and an outstanding young man, Holmes, 19, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Holmes.

NEBRASKA'S MULTI-PURPOSE 'PRESS BOX' RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S FINEST

Sportswriters and broadcasters who work in Nebraska's spacious and functional Information Center (opened 1967) are unanimous in tabbing the Cornhuskers press box one of the finest in the nation.

Financed by the Athletic Department in cooperation with dedicated Cornhusker fans who helped secure a first-class press-radio-TV facility, the Nebraska Information Center cost more than $500,000. No tax money was involved in the construction or operation.

The first level is where the working press and radio people labor. On the front row, some 50 writers can be accommodated, while the second and third rows are devoted to over-flow writers, scouts, statisticians and Western Union.

Also located on the first level are nine radio booths, coaches booths, scoreboard and clock booth, statistics center, office, photo dark room, rest room, maintenance room and a communications room.

The second level of the heated and air-conditioned structure contains two movie and news photo wings, the public address booth and Section 300, which includes 316 theater seats for the Husker Achievement Award Contributors who helped make the press box a reality.

Husker Award members who agreed to contribute $1,000 per year for five years in addition to their regular $1,000 gift for scholarships, have the option to purchase four seats at a premium price in the area. The area also includes a snack bar (regular stadium fare at regular prices and no liquor), rest rooms and film change rooms.

Level No. 3 is restricted to television, movie and news photographers. It's an open-air deck atop the giant structure which stretches between the 25-yard lines.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

One of the greatest coaches in the history of American football, Bob Devaney is now turning his vast energies toward supervision of the entire athletic program at the University of Nebraska.

Nebraska has one of the finest athletic plants in the nation, thanks to Devaney's inspiration and leadership during the past 15 years.

Since becoming Athletic Director in 1967, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium has an enlarged (9,400) capacity of 76,400—largest in the Big 8—as well as an AstroTurf field and huge press box.

Since 1967, the Cornhuskers have a multi-purpose office building at the south end of Memorial Stadium, and they have an outdoor track facility—Ed Weir Stadium—and a baseball park.

Devaney also spear-headed a drive for the new multi-purpose complex that resulted in the Nebraska Legislature voting a cigarette tax to finance a 15,000-seat basketball arena, with adjacent swimming complex and indoor track plant. Wrestling and gymnastics will also be housed in the new Sports Center, located at the Nebraska Fairgrounds adjacent to the NU campus.

Few coaches ever achieved the success Devaney did as headmaster of the Nebraska Cornhuskers from 1962 to 1972. During most of that span he was the "winningest coach in the nation," based on percentage of victories. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big 8 titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Trophy winner, a Heisman Trophy winner and numerous Coach of the Year and similar honors. Twice his teams won four straight titles—1963-1966 and 1969-1972.

In his final season, Devaney's 1972 Huskers went 9-2-1 with a 40-6 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, and Bob led the nation's active coaches with a lifetime record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. That year, too, Johnny Rodgers won the Heisman Trophy and Rich Glover swept the Outland and Lombardi Trophies, a fete never equalled by any other school.

Devaney was named Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Football Writers Association after Nebraska's Cornhuskers were undefeated in 13 games in 1971, sweeping to the national championship after winning the Game of the Century against Oklahoma, 35-31.

It was the second-straight national championship for Nebraska. The 1970 team was also undefeated (11-0-1), and during the span of 1969 to 1972, the Huskers went 32 games without a defeat. After Nebraska defeated LSU in the 1971 Orange Bowl game to win its first national title, former President Richard Nixon came to Lincoln to bestow a presidential plaque upon Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

The Devaney Huskers reaped countless honors during those two years—AP and UPI trophies, the Grantland Rice Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl, Big 8 and Orange Bowl trophies and Coach of the Year by the Football News.

All Star games were old hat for Devaney who coached in many post-season classics such as the Hula Bowl, the Coaches All America, the All America Bowl, the Blue-Gray and the Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All Stars against the NFL Champion Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

At Nebraska, Devaney's teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two in 11 years, following his 35-10-5 record at Wyoming. He never had a losing season at Nebraska and he directed three undefeated teams—1965, 1970 and 1971. In 11 years, Devaney's teams went to nine post-season games, winning six and losing three. The Huskers played in the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and four times in the Orange Bowl with Devaney at the helm.

Under Devaney's outstanding leadership, too, the Cornhuskers produced 22 All America players and 72 All Big 8 selections in the past ten years.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a B.S. Degree in 1939.

After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., High, Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams had a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming head coach at Wyoming in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

SPECIAL SHOES

Nebraska players wear special shoes when playing on AstroTurf. Depending on weather conditions the Huskers wear either soccer type shoes or shoes with short steel-tipped spikes.

D. B. (WOODY) VARNER

The 1976 University of Nebraska Football Guide is dedicated to D. B. (Woody) Varner, President of the University of Nebraska, who in January will depart his present post and become Chairman of the Board for the University of Nebraska Foundation.

During his seven years as President of the NU Central Administration, which includes the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the Medical Center, as well as the flagship Cornhusker campuses in Lincoln and their outstate activities, Varner has been a devoted fan of NU athletic teams.

A former basketball star at Texas A&M, Woody seldom misses a Cornhusker cage game and has been keenly interested in the fortunes of the Nebraska football program, as well as all other sports on the men's and women's docket.

The Cornhusker Athletic Department is happy to join in the statewide salute to Woody Varner—who gained nationwide respect and admiration for the great job he has been doing as president of the University of Nebraska—and also joins in wishing Woody well in his new position with the NU Foundation.

The 1976 Cornhusker Marching Band, under the direction of Dr. Robert A. Fought, is looking forward to another exciting season as the Marching Red joins Big Red in Nebraska's annual football spectacular in Memorial Stadium.

The NU Alumni Band, led by Director of Bands Jack R. Snider, will return after last year's successful debut to appear in the pre-game festivities at the home opener on September 25.

Ms. Charla Jean Willson from Crescent, Oklahoma returns for her second year as the Band's solo twirler. The drum major corps remains in tact from last year with head drum major Diane Miller Frost, a music major from Lexington, and Lincolnites Don Thursby and Ken Tiekotter in command. The flag corps, a new unit with the Cornhusker Band in 1975, were enthusiastically received by Big Red fans, and this year the "Ladies in Red" will be featured during the half-time presentations.

Through the generosity of thousands of Marching Red's followers the Cornhusker Band was able to make the journey to Tempe, Arizona and the Fiesta Bowl. With its successful performance in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, the Cornhusker Marching Band has run its total of post season appearances to 13. This fall the 240 member Band plans to travel to Lawrence, Kansas for the October 30th game with the Jayhawks. As usual, a pep band will travel to all of Nebraska's Big 8 games away from Lincoln and play at all home basketball games.

The Cornhusker Marching Band is one of 6 band organizations that perform on the NU campus, with the total Band program involving more than 400 students from all major areas of academic study. University Bands appear in over 40 performances during the academic year.

Lettermen Lost (15): Offense 9, Defense 6, Kickers 0.

Band Director: William F. Swor

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

With a total of 41 returning lettermen listed, the 1976 of the LSU Tigers should feature experience virtually across the squad. QB Pat Lyons, inexperienced last year, spent a season under fire and has attained a great deal more confidence; TB Terry Robiskie, with 1,400 yards rushing, is only 766 yards short of LSU's all-time leadership, but splendid sophomore Charles Alexander will give Terry a battle for the number one spot. The interior offensive line has experience but little depth. The defensive unit is strong, tough and anchored by A. J. Duhe who may be the best down lineman in LSU history. Generally speaking, LSU should be better than last year.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska defeated LSU 10-7 in Lincoln last year and leads the series 2-0. The Huskers won the first game, 17-12, in the 1971 Orange Bowl game.

Lettermen Lost (22): Offense 10, Defense 11, Kickers 1.

Band Director: Fred Ebbs

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Coach Lee Corso is looking for continued improvement in his Hoosier squad this fall and bases much of this expectation on Indiana's performance in the last four games: a 24-14 loss to Ohio State after taking the Buckeyes into the final quarter; a 14-6 loss to highly physical Michigan State; a 9-9 tie at Wisconsin, and a 9-7 defeat by Purdue.

"We developed into a Big Ten program over those games," said Corso. "There are indications from those games that we have passed some milestones on the way toward the type of football that Indiana should have."

SERIES HISTORY

The Huskers defeated Indiana 45-0 last year in Lincoln, but the Hoosiers still lead the series 4-9-3.

Band Director: James A. Jacobsen

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Improving on last year's 1-10 overall record, including a 1-6 Southwestern Conference mark good for a seventh place tie, are the main items on TCU head Coach Jim Shofner's agenda for 1976.

Offensively, Texas Christian will be paced by five returning starters, including quarterback Jimmy Dan Elzner and split end Mike Renfro. Renfro, TCU's junior All American candidate, has established himself as one of the premier split ends in the country for the current campaign.

Defensively, the Horned Frogs return seven starters, including sophomore strong safety Darryl Lowe. Last year as a freshman, Lowe made several Frosh All American teams and should be highly considered for honors in 1976.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska beat TCU 56-14 in Lincoln last year and leads the Husker-Horned Frog series 4-1. TCU won the first game, 28-7, in 1951, then the Huskers won, 34-14, in 1965; 14-10, in 1966; and 29-0 in 1967.

Band Director: Bill Russell.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Mark University of Miami "much improved and dangerous" on your football form chart for 1976. Miami will be big and fast.

A year ago, Coach Carl Selmer, in his first season as head coach of the Hurricanes, took a group of inexperienced players (most of which had no college experience at all) and molded them into a squad which had mighty Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado, Notre Dame and Florida reeling before eventually bowing.

SERIES HISTORY

Last year, Nebraska beat Miami 31-16 in Lincoln and leads the series 3-1. Miami won first game, 19-7, at Miami in 1951, then Nebraska won 20-16 at Lincoln in 1953 and 36-34 in 1962 at the Gotham Bowl.

Returning Lettermen (36): Offense 17, Defense 18, Kickers 1.

Lettermen Lost (18): Offense 11, Defense 6, Kickers 1.

Band Director: Jack Foote

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Finding a quarterback and replacing most of the massive interior are the problems here. But Bill Mallory has some top-flight people back such as All American tight end Don Hasselbeck, tailback Tony Reed, offensive guard Leon White and quarterbacks Jeff Austin and Jeff Knappe.

Colorado's defense should be much improved this year. Mallory's defense came on strong to move up to fourth in league total defense from a cellar finish in 1974. Returning are 18 lettermen on defense, including seven starters.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska beat the Buffs 63-21 in Lincoln last year and the Cornhuskers lead the Nebraska-Colorado series 22-11-1.

Returning Lettermen (37): Offense 22, Defense 14, Kickers 1.

Lettermen Lost (15): Offense 6, Defense 9, Kickers 0.

Band Director: Phillip W. Hewett

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Offensively, all but one regular, plus several part-time starters, return for the Wildcats, but K-State boss Ellis Rainsberger is certain to be searching for ingredients that will add a little oomph to a KSU offense which sputtered during most of 1975.

Uppermost among Rainsberger's concerns are: (1) Finding a quarterback who can run K-State's Slot I offense with authority; (2) Improving the Wildcats' offensive line play with bigger, stronger folks; and (3) Uncovering a back or two of bread-and-butter talents.

Defensively, potentially, the 'Cats could have a great one if capable replacements were located in a couple of positions during spring drills.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska defeated Kansas State 12-0 at Manhattan last year, and the Huskers lead the series 48-10-2.

Band Director: Alexander Pickard

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Missouri's 1976 football team should feature a fast-paced offense—with Steve Pisarkiewicz throwing, and Curt Brown running—but the defense again could be questionable.

To go with Zark's arm, the 200-pound Brown ought to be one of the Big Eight's best rushers—and both will operate behind a line that is all-veteran from tackle to tackle.

The Tigers apparently came up with some quality receivers last spring, replacing all America Henry Marshall and Randy Grossart . . . Zark's chief targets should be Lamont Downer, little Leo Lewis and Joe Stewart, a :09.6 sprinter.

Defensively, Mizzou returns eight starters—but the Tigers lacked size and ferocity up front last year.

SERIES HISTORY

The Huskers defeated Missouri 30-7 last year in Columbia and Nebraska leads the series 36-30-3.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

On the surface it may appear that Kansas has a good chance to improve on the success of 1975 that saw a 7-5-0 overall record, fourth place finish in the rugged Big Eight Conference with a 4-3-0 mark, and a resulting berth in the Sun Bowl. Sixteen returning starters and 37 lettermen tend to indicate that. But Bud Moore, Big Eight coach of-the-year in 1975, quickly takes exception to that analysis.

"There is no way that you can reasonably figure we'll be better in 1976," the KU mentor says. "Although I won't discount the possibility of us improving on last year's record there are simply too many problem areas for anyone to logically figure we will."

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska defeated Kansas 16-0 last year in Lincoln and leads the Husker-Jayhawk series 58-21-3.

Kaloi could be one of the top quarterbacks in the nation while Birdsong, if he stays healthy, could surpass the 731 yards he gained last season while missing one game and barely seeing action in another.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska and Hawaii last met in 1971 when the Huskers defeated Hawaii 45-3 at Honolulu. The Cornhuskers lead the series 2-1. Nebraska won, 50-0, in 1954 at Honolulu, then lost, 6-0, in 1955 at Lincoln.

FACTS ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

A Brief History—

The University of Nebraska, now an institution of three major components—the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and University of Nebraska Medical Center, Omaha—and a collection of agricultural experiment stations and related offices across the state, was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 and held its first classes in 1871 in a 3-story brick building on the outskirts of Lincoln.

At its chartering, the University was committed to instruct in agriculture, the “mechanic arts,” and military tactics by the terms of the Land-Grant College Act of 1862 to which the Legislature subscribed. These special endeavors, however, were made parts of the total University program with the result that Nebraska, unlike some of its neighbors, has had but one major institution of higher education.

The early years were fraught with internal ideological conflicts, with financial problems and with shortages of collegiate students. The University not only survived without interruption, it managed to establish the first program of graduate education west of the Mississippi in the mid-1880s. By 1909 it had attained membership in the select Association of American Universities, a tribute to the high quality of its faculty and scholastic programs.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln now has 10 Colleges, plus three Schools and many other programs. Thirty-nine doctoral level, 61 masters, 110 undergraduate and 15 pre-professional areas of study are offered.

Lack of financial support forced the University in 1888 to close the Medical College it had opened in Lincoln five years earlier. In 1902, the University reentered the field of medical education, taking over the Omaha Medical College. This became the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

Since the adoption of the Nebraska constitution in 1875, the University has been governed by an elected Board of Regents. In 1968, pursuant to legislative action and a city-wide election in Omaha, the Board of Regents was made responsible for governance of the former municipal University of Omaha, renamed the University of Nebraska at Omaha. In 1970, the number of Regents was increased from six to eight. This number was increased again in 1974, when a representative of the student body from each of the three campuses became a non-voting member.

In 1971, the chief executive officer of the University was given the title of President. The executive heads of the three components, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, were accorded the titles of Chancellor and Vice President.

NEBRASKA, GEORGIA TECH TIED AT SIX FOR BOWL WIN STREAK RECORD

Nebraska and Georgia Tech are currently tied for the bowl victory streak record, both team's winning six-postseason classics in a row.

The Huskers string was constructed like this: 1969—beat Georgia 45-6 in the Sun Bowl (played in December); 1971—beat LSU 17-12 in the Orange Bowl; 1972—beat Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl; 1973—beat Notre Dame 40-6 in the Orange Bowl; 1974—beat Texas 19-3 in the Cotton Bowl and 1974—beat Florida 13-10 in the Sugar Bowl (Dec. 31). Nebraska was after the title outright last year when the Huskers met Arizona State in the Fiesta Bowl on Dec. 26, but lost to the Sun Devils 17-14.

Georgia Tech set the national mark in 1957 this way: 1952—beat Baylor 17-14 in the Orange Bowl; 1953—beat Mississippi 24-7 in the Sugar Bowl; 1954—beat West Virginia 42-19 in the Sugar Bowl; 1955—beat Arkansas 14-6 in the Cotton Bowl; 1956 beat Pittsburgh 7-0 in the Sugar Bowl and 1957—beat Pittsburgh 21-14 in the Gator Bowl.

CORNHUSKER LEGEND

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters.

But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star—he also helped originate the Associated Press ranking poll—tired of referring to the Nebraska teams in such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters.

Iowa had from time to time been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Cy. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Cy started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska by-word.

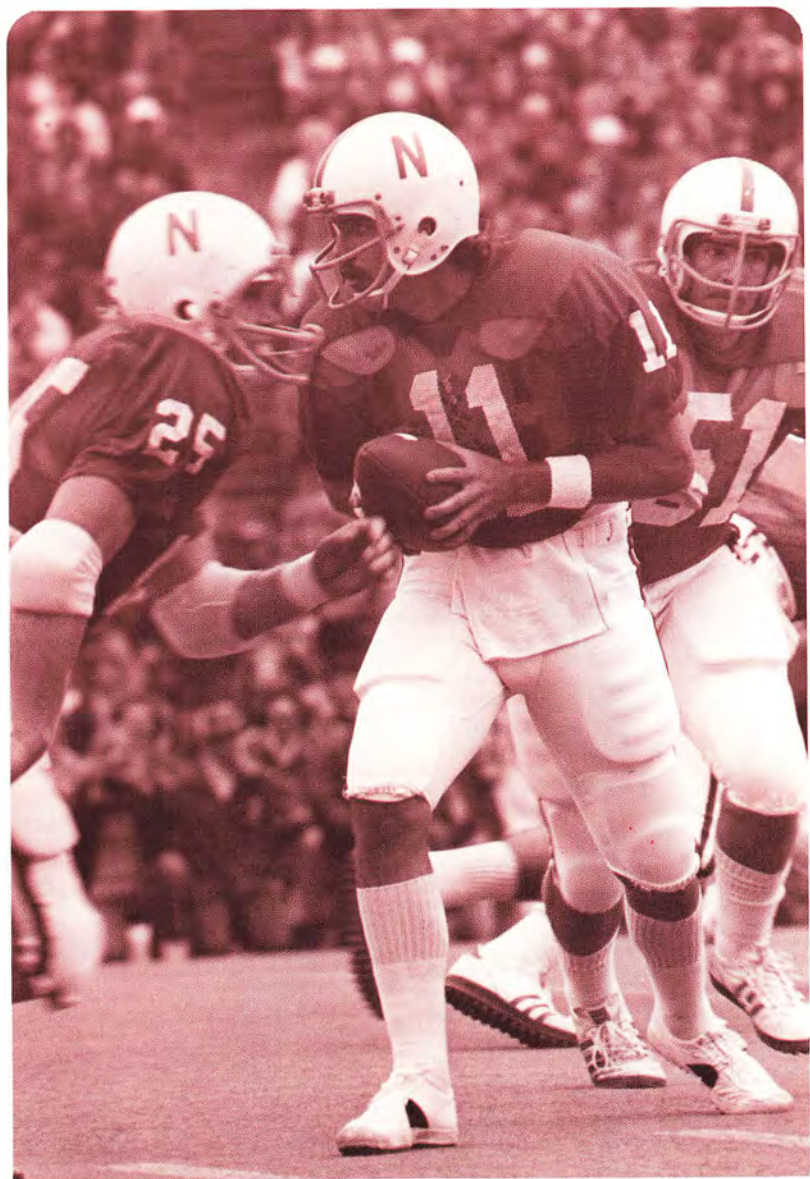

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

At the present time, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department uses two distinctly different cartoon characters as promotional symbols. One is a caricature of the famed Nebraska fan as drawn by Bill Goggins. It first appeared in the NEBRASKA FARMER, and that publication gave permission for the Athletic Department to use the red-attired fan as a symbol.

The newest cartoon character evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the Cotton Bowl in 1974. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Tex., designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character.

Artist West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the football and the agricultural tradition of the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers.

DEPLETED HUSKERS OPEN WITH 10-7 WIN OVER LSU

Lincoln, Nebraska (September 13, 1975)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers opened the 1975 season without a number of key players, but the Huskers pulled out a 10-7 victory over a stubborn Louisiana State team.

With 76,259 fans looking on, the Huskers went into battle without All America Rik Bonness (injury) and four players ruled ineligible for the game by the NCAA—Jimmy Burrow, Ray Phillips, Vince Ferragamo and Dean Gissler. It was also the first time all members of the Cornhusker squad were unable to suit up, thanks to a new NCAA rule limiting the squad to 60 in suit.

The Huskers got on the board first with a second quarter pass from Terry Luck to Bobby Thomas. It was a four-yard flip with 1:24 left in the half which finally broke open the defensive struggle.

Mike Coyle's 37-yard field goal—which was to be the victory margin, just as in the Sugar Bowl game—gave the Huskers a 10-0 lead with 5:23 left in the third quarter.

LSU stormed back to score just before the quarter ended and then the two defensive units staged a fourth-quarter standoff.

While it wasn't a high-scoring affair, Nebraska—with a new quarterback, a rebuilt defense and an offensive line that had never started a game together, proved it could win a close one; and 1975 opened on a victorious note.

CORNHUSKERS STRIKE EARLY, ROUT BIG 10 INDIANA HOOSIERS, 45-0

Lincoln, Nebraska (September 20, 1975)—Pepped by Dave Butterfield's pass interception on the first play of the game. Nebraska scored at will and completely shut off the Indiana Hoosiers for a 45-0 victory.

The Huskers led 10-0 at the quarter and 24-0 at halftime; then stretched the gap to 38-0 after three quarters.

Nebraska had 12 backs log rushing yardage and Monte Anthony scored twice.

It was a convincing offensive show as the Huskers piled up 300 yards rushing and another 170 via passing.

Nebraska's defense held Indiana to only 69 yards on the ground and six passes for 28 yards.

So with a 2-0 record and an improving offense, the Huskers looked ahead to TCU.

AWESOME DEFENSE, MASSIVE ATTACK PEPS HUSKERS' 56-14 WIN OVER TCU

Lincoln, Nebraska (September 27, 1975)—With the Black Shirts holding TCU's ground attack to a mere 16 yards, the Nebraska Cornhuskers stormed past the Texans, 56-14.

Some 75,931 fans saw the Huskers score early and often, while the defense allowed only one TD. Nebraska scored in every quarter, with seven different players logging touchdowns.

It was win No. 3 for the highly-rated Huskers and they out-yarded TCU, 517-169. Both Terry Luck (three) and Vince Ferragamo (one) tossed TD passes to compliment the 323-yard Husker rushing attack.

TCU made it 14-7 in the second quarter thanks to a 21-yard Jimmy Dan Elzner to Mike Renfro TD pass in the second quarter, but the Huskers exploded for two quick touchdowns after a fumble recovery and a pass interception to lead 27-7 at halftime.

After Nebraska got a 49-7 lead in the fourth quarter, Darryl Lowe intercepted a Ferragamo pass and ran 70 yards to score. But NU reserves came right back with a 70-yard drive to account for the final score.

NEBRASKA STANDS UP TO MIAMI'S SCARE, HUSKERS SECOND HALF RALLY NETS 31-16 WIN

Lincoln, Nebraska (October 4, 1975)—Nebraska found itself trailing stubborn Miami 9-7 at the half, but rallied behind 24 second half points and quarterback Vince Ferragamo to defeat the Hurricanes 31-16.

Miami, a team coached by former Husker assistant Carl Selmer that had taken Oklahoma to the hilt before losing 20-17 on Sept. 26, struck for six, first quarter points on two field goals by Chris Dennis. Nebraska's only first half score was set up when linebacker Jim Wightman recovered a Hurricane fumble on the Miami 25. Then, five plays later, I-Back John O'Leary scored from three yards out, and with Mike Coyle's extra point, it was NU 7-UM 6, with 10:20 left in the half. However, the Hurricanes led at the break when Dennis kicked an 18-yard field goal with 6:08 left in the first half to make it a 9-7 Miami lead.

But Nebraska was not to be outdone, coming out in the third quarter behind the throwing of Ferragamo and the running of O'Leary, to score 10-points and take a 17-9 lead going into the fourth quarter. In the final frame, the Huskers scored twice more, on an eight-yard run by O'Leary and a 40-yard touchdown pass from Ferragamo to Bobby Thomas, to make it NU 31-UM 9. Miami scored once before the final gun, making the final score Nebraska 31, Miami 16.

So Nebraska had gone through its nonconference schedule with a perfect 4-0 mark and was ready for its Big 8 opener against the Inspired Kansas Jayhawks.

NEBRASKA OPENS BIG 8 SEASON WITH 16-0 WIN OVER KANSAS

Lincoln, Nebraska (October 11, 1975)—Behind a great Black Shirt defensive effort, that halted Kansas' wishbone and quarterback Nolan Cromwell, Nebraska opened the Big 8 season with a 16-0 win over the Jayhawks.

It was a defensive struggle throughout the game, with Kansas' defenders holding the Huskers to just two, first half Mike Coyle field goals. Kansas threatened to score at the end of the half, when the Jayhawks attempted a 24-yard field goal with only one second left on the clock. But as the ball sailed towards the uprights, Nebraska defensive end Ray Phillips blocked the kick, giving the Cornhuskers a 6-0 halftime lead.

The Huskers scored another field goal in the third period and added a final touchdown in the fourth, behind the passing of Terry Luck who came in for starter Vince Ferragamo, to defeat Kansas 16-0.

Defensively, the Black Shirts held Kansas to only 121 yards rushing and limited Cromwell to 62 yards on 19 carries. Overall, the Jayhawks could only generate 177 total offensive yards.

Nebraska, now sporting a 5-0 mark, took to the road for the first time in 1975 to face the fierce Oklahoma State Cowboys.

NU OUTLASTS OKLAHOMA STATE 28-20, FERRAGAMO NAMED NATIONAL BACK OF THE WEEK

Stillwater, Oklahoma (October 18, 1975)—Vince Ferragamo, coming in for injured starter Terry Luck in the first quarter, accounted for all four Nebraska touchdowns as the Huskers defeated Oklahoma State 28-20.

In the first half, Nebraska scored three times, on two Ferragamo runs and a scoring pass to John O'Leary, while holding the Cowboys to one score and taking what appeared to be a safe 21-7 lead into the lockerrooms.

But Oklahoma State capitalized on an early third quarter Nebraska fumble, closing it to 21-14. But again Ferragamo clicked, this time to tight end Brad Jenkins for 10 yards with 5:58 left in the third, making it NU 28-OSU 14. However, the Cowboys were not to be denied, and scored on their next possession to pull within eight points and create dramatics for the final quarter.

It was nip and tuck throughout the fourth period until a bad snap on a Husker punt went astray and Oklahoma State found itself on the Nebraska 23 yard line. The Cowboys kept getting closer to paydirt and tried to score three times from inside the Husker five yard line in the last minute of play, but thanks to fine defensive plays by Chuck Jones and a host of other Black Shirts, Nebraska held to win 28-20.

For his fine offensive performance, Ferragamo was named the National and Big 8 Back of the Week. And the Huskers found themselves 6-0 and heading for a collision with the Colorado Buffaloes.

COLORADO FALLS TO NU OFFENSE 63-21, HUSKERS ROMP DESPITE BUFFS INITIAL SCORE

Lincoln, Nebraska (October 25, 1975)—Despite Colorado scoring the first time it had the ball, Nebraska's offense never wilted and just kept coming to surprisingly defeat the Buffaloes 63-21.

Before Cornhusker fans could even settle in their seats, Buff quarterback Dave Williams broke around right end for 74 yards and a touchdown, with only 45 seconds gone in the first period. But that score only seemed to anger Nebraska, because what was about to happen was unbelievable.

The Huskers also scored on their initial possession and before the first quarter was over, had scored twice more to make it NU 21-CU 7. Then, capitalizing on Colorado mistakes, Nebraska scored three more times before the half, stretching its lead to 42-7.

The second half was filled with even more scoring, as the Huskers added 21 more points to their total while holding Colorado to two additional touchdowns. The fourth quarter was scoreless as NU reserves mopped up.

Pacing the Huskers were quarterback Vince Ferragamo, completing 8-10 passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns, I-Back Dave Gillespie who gained 106 yards on 22 carries for one score and split end Bobby Thomas, catching 2 passes for 71 yards and a touchdown.

The Huskers were now 7-0, and headed for Columbia to face archrival Missouri, a team NU coach Tom Osborne had never beaten.

BUMMEROOSKY PACES NEBRASKA, HUSKERS HIT MISSOURI 30-7

Columbia, Missouri (November 1, 1975)—In a game that will long be remembered for Nebraska's 'Bummeroosky Play,' the Huskers defeated Missouri 30-7 before a national audience viewing the game on ABC-TV.

Nebraska took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, on a Mike Coyle field goal and a Vince Ferragamo to Brad Jenkins touchdown pass, before Missouri pulled to within three, at 10-7, with 6:34 left in the first half.

Then, with 1:46 left in the second quarter, Husker coach Tom Osborne called for the 'Bummeroosky,' which crossed up the Tigers, the TV cameras and 68,000 fans. With Nebraska in punt formation, the ball was snapped to blocker Tony Davis, who pushed the ball from behind through John O'Leary's legs, then turned and faked to Monte Anthony coming around right. All the Huskers, including the punter, tore off to the right as if it was a fake kick reverse, while O'Leary remained stationary with the ball hidden. Then, when 11 Missouri players took off with the Husker flow to the right, O'Leary went to his left and ran 40 yards to score without a Tiger being the wiser until it was too late.

Nebraska scored twice more in the second half, while the Black Shirts held Missouri to only 71 yards rushing. But it was the 'Bummeroosky' that turned the tide and gave Osborne his first head coaching win over Missouri.

Manhattan, Kansas (November 8, 1975)—In a classic defensive struggle, Nebraska's Black Shirts against Kansas State's Purple Pride, the Huskers defeated the Wildcats 12-0 for their ninth win of the 1975 season.

The Cornhuskers scored nine, tough points in the first quarter, on a Vince Ferragamo to Tony Davis touchdown pass and a 24-yard Mike Coyle field goal. After that, both defenses stiffened and the first half ended with Nebraska leading K-State 9-0.

In the third quarter, the Huskers added another field goal to complete its scoring, while the defenses continued their battle for the rest of the day. Overall, the Black Shirts held KSU to 131 yards total offense, 84 rushing and just 47 passing. The Huskers also intercepted one Kansas State pass.

Defensive performers pacing Nebraska were starting linebackers Clete Pillen and Jim Wightman. Pillen was in on 15 total tackles, including six unassisted, while Wightman was in on 14 tackles, four of them unassisted. Kansas State's standout was linebacker Gary Spani, who garnered 19 total tackles, seven unassisted, and dropped Huskers three times behind the line for a loss of 15 yards.

Nebraska next took a 9-0 record and a 5-0 unbeaten conference mark, against the Iowa State Cyclones.

NEBRASKA BLANKS IOWA STATE 52-0, WARMS UP FOR OKLAHOMA SHOOTOUT

Lincoln, Nebraska (November 15, 1975)—Nebraska's Black Shirts turned in their fourth shutout of the year as the Huskers defeated the Iowa State Cyclones 52-0.

Defensively, Nebraska held Iowa State to 202 total offensive yards, 150 on the ground and 52 through the air. The Huskers also recovered an Iowa State fumble and intercepted a Cyclone pass.

As the Black Shirts were preventing the Cyclones a touchdown, Nebraska scored on its first possession following an Iowa State fumble of the opening kickoff. Three plays later, with 13:57 left in the first quarter, Curtis Craig scored on an outside reverse and with Mike Coyle's kick, it was 7-0 and the Huskers were rolling to win No. 10.

Nebraska's win over Iowa State and Oklahoma's narrow 28-27 victory over Missouri that same afternoon, set up a Big 8 title game between the Huskers and the Sooners. The Cornhuskers were unbeaten and ranked No. 2 in the country, while Oklahoma had suffered one conference loss, a 23-3 upset by Kansas on Nov. 8. And a lot was at stake for the winner of the Nebraska-Oklahoma game, because the victor would represent the Big 8 at the Orange Bowl.

SOONER SURGE, NU TURNOVERS GIVE OKLAHOMA 35-10 WIN

Norman, Oklahoma (November 22, 1975)—Oklahoma, scoring on five of six Nebraska turnovers, defeated the Huskers 35-10, giving the Sooners a share of the Big 8 title with Nebraska and enabling Oklahoma to represent the conference at the Orange Bowl.

It was close throughout the first half with Oklahoma taking a 7-3 lead into the lockerrooms at halftime, but it was the second half of play, particularly the fourth quarter, that spelled doom for the Huskers.

Early in the third period, Nebraska capitalized on a Sooner fumble and with 8:09 left in that period, Monte Anthony scored from the one to give the Huskers a 10-7 lead. But just as Nebraska capitalized, so did Oklahoma, recovering a Husker fumble late in the third and driving for a touchdown with 1:14 left in the period, giving the Sooners a 14-10 lead.

Oklahoma sealed its victory early in the fourth when the Sooners punted to Nebraska at the Husker 13 yard line. The ball was fumbled and recovered by Oklahoma. The Sooners scored three plays later to make it OU 21-NU 10. Before the final gun sounded, Nebraska committed two more turnovers, both which resulted in Oklahoma scores, and the Sooners were off to the Orange Bowl with a 35-10 win.

HUSKERS HAVE DONE WELL IN 53 YEARS AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska football teams for the past 53 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is 177-84-13 record posted by the Husker's In their home stadium since it was opened in 1923.

ELMER DOHRMANN TOP NU LETTERMAN

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters during his NU career which spanned 1936-39. He won monograms in football, basketball, track and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

Multiple letter leaders:

- Bob Russell (1919-1923)—9 letters
- Paul Amen (1936-39)—8 letters
- Bob Cerv (1946-50)—8 letters
- Tom Novak (1946-50)—7 letters
- Mike DiBlase (1946-50)—7 letters

Those Cornhuskers who have gained 6 letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins, Adrian Fiala, and Chuck Malito.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Bob Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns.

ARIZONA STATE STOPS NEBRASKA 17-14 IN THE FIESTA BOWL; HUSKERS CONSECUTIVE BOWL WIN STREAK STOPPED AT SIX

Tempe, Arizona (December 27, 1975)—In a game that was as seething as the Arizona sunshine, Arizona State defeated Nebraska 17-14 in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, halting the Cornhuskers consecutive bowl game winning streak at six.

Right up to the end, the Huskers were in winning contention, even after Sun Devil kicker Danny Kush had put Arizona State on top 17-14, with a 29-yard field goal and only 4:50 left to play.

Then the Huskers, behind quarterback Terry Luck who had replaced starter Vince Ferragamo in the first quarter, gallantly started a drive at the Nebraska 27 yard line, following Curtis Craig's 17-yard kickoff return.

Nebraska hammered to the Arizona State 31 in 10 plays, where the Cornhuskers were faced with a first and ten situation. The Huskers first two plays were incomplete passes from Luck to split end Bobby Thomas.

But on third down, Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21. There, Davis was hit hard by two Sun Devil players and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Arizona State and the Huskers were on their way to their first bowl loss in six years.

It was an unfortunate circumstance for Davis to end his great three-year Husker career. For during the Fiesta Bowl battle, Davis became the all time leading Nebraska rusher, finishing his Nebraska stint with 2,445 yards, 25 more than Jeff Kinney (1969-71).

It was a defensive struggle all the way, with Arizona State scoring first, on a 27-yard field goal by Kush with 10:48 left in the first quarter.

Nebraska then countered to take a 7-3 lead with 7:50 remaining in the first half, when I-Back Monte Anthony scored from one yard out, climaxing an eight play-one penalty, 73 yard drive.

Kush, son of ASU coach Frank Kush, struck the Huskers again before the first half ended, this time on a 33-yarder with no time left on the clock, pulling the Sun Devils to within one, at 7-6.

In the third quarter, the Huskers put together their best drive of the day, 91-yards in 16-plays and a penalty, scoring on a four-yard run by Anthony with 5:49 left and increasing Nebraska's lead to 14-6.

But the Huskers could not stop Arizona State's fourth quarter barrage, which included a 10-yard Fred Mortensen to John Jefferson touchdown pass and a two-point play to go along with Kush's winning field goal, giving ASU the final 17-14 win.

It was ironic that Nebraska's bowl winning streak would be stopped at six by a field goal, when that same mark was reached following Mike Coyle's field goal that gave the Huskers a 13-10 win over Florida in the 1974 Sugar Bowl game.

Regent Simmons Former Husker Track Standout

University of Nebraska Regent Robert G. Simmons, Jr., of Scottsbluff is a former Cornhusker track star who won six championships during his career.

Simmons, son of the long time Chief Justice of the Nebraska Supreme Court and father of John Simmons, who lettered three years for Coach Frank Sevigne in the 1960s, was a standout Big 6 quartermiler. He won the indoor 440 in 1938 (:51.8) and 1939 (:50.4) and won the outdoor title three straight years—1937 (:49.1), 1938 (:48.8) and 1939 (:47.8). Bob also won the 220-yard low hurdles (:24.0) in 1939 for a tough double.

NEBRASKA BOWL HISTORY AND RECORDS

1941 ROSE BOWL

STANFORD 21, NEBRASKA 13

Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—the Rose Bowl. Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the three. Stanford tied the count just four plays later when Pete Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out. In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankle Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter.

1955 ORANGE BOWL DUKE 34, NEBRASKA 7

If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, its second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule. Making their first bowl appearance in 15 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half 14-0 and pulled within 14-7 early in the second quarter after a minus-two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 GOTHAM BOWL

NEBRASKA 36, MIAMI, FLA. 34

Playing under coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter. Willie Ross' one-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute Interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

1964 ORANGE BOWL NEBRASKA 13, AUBURN 7

Nebraska made it's second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries. Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen set another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead. Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go.

1965 COTTON BOWL

ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7

Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history. Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter but soph Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Porkers held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

1966 ORANGE BOWL

ALABAMA 39, NEBRASKA 28

With the National Championship riding on the line, coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national game in the Orange Bowl. Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title, 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and set passing and receiving records.

1967 SUGAR BOWL

ALABAMA 34, NEBRASKA 7

Never ones to duck a challenge, coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping. The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Nebraska and Sun Bowl record four field goals—in the first quarter—and coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl. Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore l-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109.

1971 ORANGE BOWL NEBRASKA 17, LOUISIANA STATE 12

Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17 in the Rose. That left the doors to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead. Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, Jerry Tagge stretching the ball over from the one with 6:10 left and the whole world knew Nebraska was No. 1.

1972 ORANGE BOWL

NEBRASKA 38, ALABAMA 6

It was supposed to be another 'Game of the Century' rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide were No. 2 and the OB had a dream game—for a little less than a quarter. The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza, and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1—Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving the Huskers a second straight national title and coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama coach Bear Bryant.

1973 ORANGE BOWL

NEBRASKA 40, NOTRE DAME 6

Helsman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come. "Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his record 50 career TDs by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to paydirt.

1974 COTTON BOWL NEBRASKA 19, TEXAS 3

Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight scoring contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big 8 runnersup and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn one-yard-line stand just before the gun. But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays later Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring. Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Billy Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 SUGAR BOWL NEBRASKA 13, FLORIDA 10

Rallying from a 10-0 halftime deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the second half to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers sixth straight bowl victory, tying Nebraska with Georgia Tech for consecutive bowl wins.

From the very start, it was a tough, uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black Shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Setting up the next two Husker scores was the fanatical running of Davis. Overall he ran for 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he also received in the Cotton Bowl.

Nebraska's final scores came on field goals by Coyle. Coyle tied the score on a successful 37-yard boot with only 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, Coyle's 39-yard kick was good, and the Huskers had won their sixth straight post-season game.

1975 FIESTA BOWL

ARIZONA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 14

Nebraska's six bowl game winning streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 fans in Tempe, Ariz.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils a 17-14 lead.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered it and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Despite the loss, a major milestone in Nebraska football history was established during the game, when Davis became the Huskers all time leading rusher. 'Tough Tony' finished his three year career with 2,445 yards, 25 more than Jeff Kinney gained from 1969-71.

So Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1 ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2 ranked Sun Devils.

SPRING GAME—

REDS FALL TO WHITES, 29-26,

GARCIA STARS FOR SECOND YEAR

Lincoln, Nebraska (May 1, 1976)—In a game that was exciting for both the players and the fans, quarterback Randy Garcia led an inspired White team to a 29-26 upset win over the Reds in Nebraska's annual Spring Game, before 18,135 fans at Memorial Stadium.

The White's scored first, on a 52-yard field goal by freshman kicker Dean Sukup, with 4:01 left in the first quarter. But due to an 80-yard, scoring punt return by the Red's Dave Butterfield with no time left on the first quarter clock, the White's trailed 7-3 entering the second period.

However, at the start of the second quarter, Garcia led a drive that went 93-yards in 13 plays, putting the White's back up on top 9-7, after Sukup's extra point was no good. Not to be outclassed, the favored Reds scored on two Ron VanderMeer field goals, 40 and 37-yard attempts, to put the Reds in the lockerroom with a 13-9 lead.

Quarterback Vince Ferragamo and the Red team opened up the second half scoring early in the third period, following a White fumble, and drove 33-yards in eight plays to take what appeared to be a comfortable 20-9 lead.

But this time it was the defense and not the offense, that came to the White's rescue. With 6:14 left in the third, Red punter Randy Lessman's kick was blocked by White defensive end Reg Gast at the Reds 28. Then, monster Jim Pillen picked up the rolling ball and returned it for a touchdown, pulling the Whites to within five at 20-15, and setting up a hectic fourth quarter.

During the final period, the lead changed hands three times and twice in the final four minutes of play. With the Reds leading 26-23 with only 2:22 to play, White defensive back Paul Letcher intercepted a Tim Hager pass at the Reds 33 yard line.

Five plays later, Garcia found wingback Kenny Brown open in the end zone and hit him with a 21-yard scoring pass with 1:19 left in the game, to give the Whites a 29-26 lead.

But it was not over, as the Reds had a chance to tie it with only 14 seconds remaining. However, VanderMeer's 40-yard field goal attempt was wide and the Whites had defeated the favored Reds 29-26, for their second straight win. Last year, the Whites upset the Reds 20-6.

And just like last year, it was Garcia that paced the Whites 29-26 win. For the day, he was 9-17 for 129 yards, including the game winning touchdown pass to Brown. He also didn't throw an interception.

JOHNNY RODGERS WON 1972 HEISMAN TROPHY

JOHNNY RODGERS

Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers, an All America wingback in 1971 and 1972, won the 1972 Heisman Trophy in a landslide over Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and his own teammate, Rich Glover.

Rodgers was the 38th recipient of the coveted Heisman, presented each year since 1935 to the outstanding football player in the nation by the New York Downtown Athletic Club.

The Husker 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Nebraska, by the way, holds the distinction of being the only school ever to produce a Heisman Trophy and an Outland Trophy winner in the same season—Johnny Rodgers (Heisman, 1972) and Rich Glover (Outland, 1972). And for good measure, Glover added the Lombardi Trophy in 1972 to become the only man ever to win both the Outland and the Lombardi in the same year.

The 1972 Heisman Trophy voting:

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
1. JOHNNY RODGERS, NEBRASKA	301	151	105	1,310

RICH GLOVER

LARRY JACOBSON

Nebraska is the only school to produce back-to-back Outland Trophy winners.

The Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America in honor of Dr. John Outland, is awarded to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation each year following voting by FWAA members.

Larry Jacobson, star defensive tackle for the 1971 National Championship team, was the first Nebraska player to win the honor. And the following year, Rich Glover—the Huskers' sensational middle guard and two-time All America—won the Outland Trophy for an unprecedented double.

Glover and Jacobson join Jim Weatherall (1951) and J. D. Roberts (1953) as the only Big 8 players to win the Outland Trophy.

SOUTH STADIUM OFFICE BUILDING HOUSES HUSKER STAFF

Most of the offices of the NU Athletic Department as well as dressing and training facilities for the football team moved in August, 1973, into an office building located beneath the south Memorial Stadium expansion. The building was part of a $1.2 million bond issue which included the office building, the Huskers' Tartan Track and stadium and the 9,400-seat addition to the south stadium in 1972.

Moving into the complex were the football, baseball and track coaching staffs, as well as the Athletic Director, Ticket Manager, Business Manager, Sports Information Director, and the training and equipment staff. Basketball, swimming, wrestling, golf, gymnastics and tennis will move into the new NU Sports Complex this summer.

The basement of the office building houses the varsity football dressing room, the equipment room, training room and weight training room. The ground floor has the ticket, sports information, business, and Athletic Director's offices, plus a lounge and meeting room. The top floor has coaches offices, film rooms, one large meeting room and two smaller ones.

The dressing room, which opens onto the field through a tunnel, ended a 50-year tradition of the Huskers entering the field from the north end zone. Baseball, track and freshman football dressing rooms will remain in the field house.

ED WEIR NAMED TO ALL-TIME ALL AMERICA CENTENNIAL TEAM

Nebraska's two-time All America from the glory days of the 1920s, Ed Weir, in 1969 was named to the All-Time All America team, selected in conjunction with the College Football Centennial in 1969.

The modern era (1941 to the present) and the early-era (1906-1940) teams were selected by veteran sportswriters from across the nation.

Weir, a Hall of Fame member, was named to a tackle spot on the early-era team, along with such college greats as Don Hutson of Alabama, Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota, Benny Friedman of Michigan, Sammy Baugh of TCU, Red Grange of Illinois, Ernie Nevers of Stanford, Chris Cagle of Army and Tom Harmon of Michigan.

Nebraska's new track stadium was named in Weir's honor early in 1974.

NEBRASKA'S CLARIDGE AND SHIREY JOIN NEBRASKA WESLEYAN'S SQUIRES IN HALL OF FAME

Dennis Claridge, Husker quarterback great from 1961-63, and Fred Shirey, Nebraska's standout tackle from 1935-37, along with Cliff Squires, Nebraska Wesleyan's versatile performer from 1946-49, were inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame at the annual banquet held at Omaha last May.

Irv Veitzer, President of the Omaha Bedding Co. and a member of the Nebraska Touchdown Club for some 20-years, received the fifth annual Clarence E. Swanson Memorial Award.

Special Merit Awards went to Jim Ross, who was a Husker varsity-freshman football coach for 14 years and is now manager of NU's new Sports Center, Ralph W. Beechner, former Lincoln High football coach, and Maurice 'Skip' Palrang, past head coach at Creighton University from 1940-42.

Nebraska's Mike Coyle and UNO's John Thomsen each received $500 scholarships for graduate study.

Kratz of Omaha, vice president for legal affairs; Charles Mancuso of Omaha, vice president for public relations; Ed Lyman of Omaha, treasurer; and Don Bryant of Lincoln, secretary.

Any Nebraska fan who wishes to join the Nebraska Chapter may do so by contacting the Sports Information Office at the University of Nebraska.

MEMORIAL STADIUM KEEPS EXPANDING

Already boasting the largest stadium in the Big 8 and one of the nation's most beautiful press facilities, the University of Nebraska added to the Bob Devaney-era improvement program in 1972 with 9,400 seats in the south end zone. Not readily apparent from inside the stadium is the Athletic Office Building completed in 1973 under the south stands. These two projects followed AstroTurf in 1970.

Nebraska was one of four Big 8 schools installing synthetic turf in 1970—joining Oklahoma (Tartan), Kansas (Tartan) and Kansas State (AstroTurf). Nebraska's was completed first. Colorado (AstroTurf) in 1971, Oklahoma State (AstroTurf) in 1972 and Iowa State (AstroTurf) in 1975, leaves only Missouri in the Big 8 still playing on the real thing.

Here is the list:

1964—South end zone section installed, making the Stadium a horse-shoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical working facility as well as raising capacity to more than 67,000.

1972—South end zone extended. 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 76,400.

1973—Athletic Office Building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

RODGERS' 20, GLOVER'S 79 RETIRED TO TROPHY CASE

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department joined in the nationwide salute to Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers and Rich Glover, winner of the coveted Outland Trophy and Lombardi Trophy, by retiring their jersey numbers.

Rodgers and Glover became the second and third Cornhuskers to be so honored, joining All America center Tom Novak.

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire Novak's No. 60 in honor of his outstanding four-year career—four times All Big 8, either as a fullback or a center, and a 1949 All America choice.

A Nov. 27 game against the University of Iowa in Nebraska's new, 15,500 seat Sports Center will open the Huskers 1976-77 basketball season.

And when the Cornhuskers line up against the Hawkeyes, Nebraska will have 10 lettermen, including two starters, back from last year's successful 19-8 squad.
